Proverbs 31:16 & 17

“She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.
She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks.”

In our last session we learned about safety and pitfalls when using the electronic devices we use today. However, the internet can also be a fount of information to use in your daily life and the workplace.

What types of employment have you had? _____

Which job was the one you liked the most and why? _____

In today's session Ms. Becker, as a former employee as well as a business owner for several years, will give you some helpful tips to make your communication and search for employment a smooth transition in your life.

Ms. Becker said you should be in control of the interview. Have you felt that way in the past? Do you think you could do that in the future after learning the items in today's session?

Very few things come to us without working for it. Following Ms Becker's suggestion on being prepared before you go to apply or especially before you are interviewed may be a bit of work, but will reap benefits in the end.

In II Timothy we are told to be prepared to share the truth he has given to us through His Son.

Showing respect for the employer as well as yourself, is a good place to be in an interview. However, the BEST place to be is in the Will of God. Be sure you surrender to His will and follow His way in order to move forward in the right direction for your life.
